

International Institute for Psychoanalytic Training (IPI)

Summary of Pre-Requisites and Other Program Requirements for Graduation

Pre-requisite

The Object Relations Theory and Practice (Core) Program Total 220 hours Consists of two summer institutes and eight week courses with GAM (group affective model) group experience completed over two years—OR—Equivalent at another institute as approved through the admissions process.

Additional Courses Total 96 hours Recommend completion before beginning analytic program, but you may complete during the analytic program or after didactic requirements are completed, but before graduation.

Infant Observation 20 sessions of 2 hours each. 40 hours

IPI approved course on object relations 20 hours
Can be “Year of...” course, Deepening the Treatment; Introduction to psychoanalysis, Bion study group, Master Speaker Series, Fellows Group or PPCP completion, etc.

Couple, Child and Family (CCF) summer institute or combination of IPI 36 hours Couple video course, weekend conferences, weekend CCF seminars.